Cerus accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage, or otherwise as stipulated in this legal disclaimer, arising from the use of any section of this website, whether such loss or damage is caused because of negligence, or otherwise on the part of Cerus.

The user assumes all risks associated with the use of this website including, but not limited to, all terms and conditions mentioned in this legal disclaimer.

Entering this website constitutes a signature of your consent to the above disclaimer. If you disagree with, or part of this disclaimer, or are unclear as to the meaning of, or part of this legal disclaimer, entering this website is strictly prohibited.

RISK DISCLAIMER: The financial products and services offered by Cerus Markets, Ltd. and its affiliates and subsidiaries ("Cerus") carry substantial risk and may not be suitable for all investors. Trading certain financial products on margin, such as foreign exchange (or forex), contracts for differences, precious metals, or other over-the-counter products, carry a high degree of leverage that can result in substantial losses as well as gains. Past performance is not indicative of future results. You should, therefore, carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your financial resources, investment objectives, level of experience and risk appetite. You should seek independent professional advice before making any investment decision, including in determining the suitability of any transaction and assessing the investment risks of any product or service.
